

TALENTED CHILDREN TO GOOD BALL PLAYED APPEAR IN CHURCH ON THE SONOMA BENEFIT DIAMOND

Friday night of next week, May 14th, the clever children who have been training under the very capable direction of Mrs. Carrie A. Burlingame, will be heard in "Ye Juvenile Old-Folks' Concert," under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational Church.

In connection with the charming entertainment by the children, there will be a sale of fancy work, candy and refreshments.

Bear the date in mind, readers, and be on hand, at Union Hall, to help a worthy cause and enjoy the following excellent program:

PART ONE
Overture..... Orchestra
Fancy March of All Ye Little Old Folks, led by Arthur Sychrowsky
Chorus..... "Long, Long Ago"
Vocal Solo..... "Blue Juniata"
Katherine Banchemo
French Song..... Arthur Sychrowsky
Chorus..... Yankee Doodle
Recitation..... Walter Carter
Vocal Solo..... "Ben Bolt"
Robley Harbot
Chorus..... "America,"

PART TWO
Chorus..... "Auld Lang Syne"
Vocal Duet..... "Billy Boy"
Irma Adler and Gordon Borison
Quintette..... "Old Oaken Bucket"
Harold and Donald Prestwood,
John Steiner, Robert Poppe,
Clifford Erickson
Chorus..... "Wait for the Wagon"
Vocal Solo..... "Grandma's Advice"
Elizabeth Lane
Vocal Solo..... "The Low-Backed Car"
Clifford Erickson
Chorus..... "Home Sweet Home"

During the intermission between the first and second parts, a violin solo, with an orchestral accompaniment, will be executed by Miss Grace Thompson.

The members of chorus comprise the little Misses Violet Bordson, Vesta and Countess Prestwood, Florence Campbell, Hershell Whitmore, Vera Scott, Elizabeth Lewis, Verna Quartaroli, Evelyn Peterson, Frances Murphy; Masters Coleman Campbell, Coil and Whit Whitmore, Cecil Hunter, Gordon Bordson and Everett Murphy.

Mrs. M. H. Rowell will assist as accompanist during the rendition of the program.

The prices of admission are fifty cents for adults and twenty-five cents for children.

Of course, the attendance will be all satisfying, as a more pleasurable evening could not well be arranged than this quaint picture of the olden times.

H. W. Sabin, of Los Angeles, was a week-end visitor at the F. T. Duhring home.

Last Sunday the local baseball fans witnessed the best game played this season. Although the game was played in the rain, the loyal ones remained to see the contest through.

There was only one feature that marred the game, and that was the defeat of the local team; nevertheless, they were pitted against the fast North Beach Federals, who so far this season have won twelve straight victories.

Sonoma's baseball team is now ready to put up a game that will make the future visiting teams play ball to defeat them.

Diamond Dust
Lefty Morrissey, who pitched for the Federals, was wild at times but showed his class in the pinches. "Bing" Nessi made a sensational throw in from center field, which cut off a run for the visitors. "Honkus" Anselmi showed the fans that he is a regular "guy" when playing baseball. Last Sunday he was switched from the infield to catch, and he delivered the goods behind the bat.

Pete Bocoli started to pitch the game for Sonoma, but the trip to Sacramento was a little too much for Pete, consequently he was not in his usual form. Pete, stay away from Sacramento.

Lefty Helberg relieved Pete Bocoli in the last three innings, and held the visitors runless.

Ralph Evans' playing around the short field was greatly improved over the form shown in the early part of the season. A few heavy hitters like Ralph would help our team in the run column.

Tomorrow, Sonoma will be hooked up with another fast aggregation—the Union-Street Merchants—from San Francisco and an interesting game is expected. See the posters.

"Jim" Modini, the popular manager of the Sonoma Ball Team, invites the public to the ball field tomorrow to see Sonoma win the game. As usual, the admission will be two-bits. All those who attend will have the honor of seeing Jim in a baseball suit. Now, folks, isn't that an inducement?

TO PLAY CARDS

On Thursday evening of next week, May 13th, Mrs. L. S. Simmons will open her beautiful home to the public, the hostesses on this occasion to be the members of St. Barbara's Guild, who will give another of their delightful card parties. A cordial invitation to attend is extended to all friends of the Guild.

BENEFIT ENTERTAINMENT FOR BLACK POINT CUT-OFF FUND

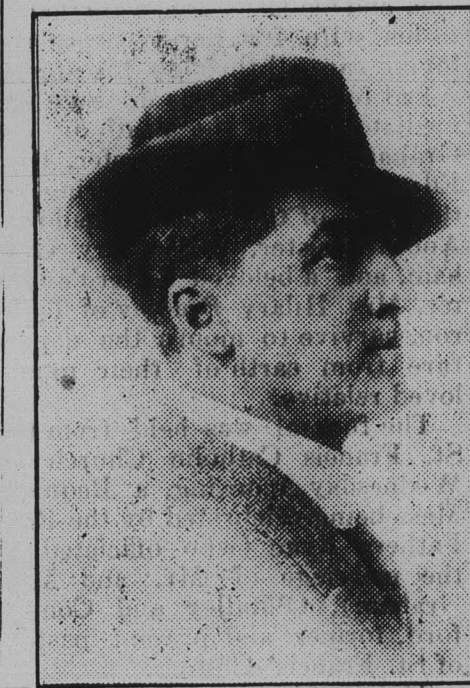

GEORGIE COOPER, who will act for the benefit of Black Point Cut-Off Fund

Wednesday night of next week, May 12th, a rousing Benefit Entertainment and Dance will be given under the auspices of the Sonoma Valley Chamber of Commerce for the purpose of raising a part at least of the final $500 needed to make up the $2700 with which to buy the rights of way not yet deeded to the State, so that the Black Point Cut-off may become, without further delay, a realization and not a possibility.

The local Chamber of Commerce has been most fortunate in the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Landers Stevens (Georgie Cooper), whose splendid dramatic talent has brought to them State-wide recognition, are enjoying a respite from theatrical work at their Boyes' Springs bungalow.

This popular couple need no introduction to the people of this valley, as they claim the friendship of a host and the admiration of the pleasure-loving public. The announcement that they are to appear in "My Friend," at Union Hall, next week, will serve to pack the house with an appreciative audience.

Colonel Reese, the "Handcuff King," and Madame Reese, clairvoyant and contortionist, who are sojourning at Boyes' Springs, are also to assist on this occasion, and some of our favorite local talent will contribute to the program.

Dancing is to be the concluding feature of the evening's entertainment.

Admission: adults, fifty cents; children, twenty-five cents.

Let everybody turn out and help the Sonoma Valley Chamber of Commerce in its laudable undertaking.

MAY PICNICS ENJOYED BY SONOMA VALLEY PEOPLE

Threatening weather conditions did not deter the many pleasure-seekers who had arranged for outings from carrying out their plans. Sunday last, and the second day of the May month was the occasion of a number of enjoyable picnics.

One of the jolliest of these affairs was held at Napa Soda Springs, eight automobiles carrying the merry-makers to the beautiful resort. The party comprised Mr. and Mrs. David Volquardson, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Dobbel, Misses Katinka Nommensen, Alice Rubke, Virginia and Sylvia Picetti, Dorothy Dobbel, Marie, Valerie and Marguerite Helberg, Helayne Volquardson, Hattie Voight, Alta Rice and petite Margaret Dobbel; Messrs. John and Louis Picetti, Louis Volquardson, Harry and Arthur Coops, L. B. Filippini, Henry, Ernest and Alfred Rubke.

Another enthusiastic "bunch" of picnickers sought the picturesque grounds of Los Amigos, the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lehrke, for their merry revels. When May showers interfered with outdoor sports, the hospitality of the home was extended, thus making possible the rounding out of the day's pleasure. The picnic party included Mr. and Mrs. A. Froment, Mr. and Mrs. E. Brichetto, Misses Albina Eraldi, Josephine Steiner, Helen Koerner, Rose and Annie Caminata, Eugenie, Antoinette and Marguerite Froment; Messrs. James Kehoe, Emile Andrieux, Bert Koerner, David Eraldi, John Steiner, Chas. Albert, Alois and Frank Groskopf.

The delightful Nun's Canyon, famed for its scenic grandeur, was the retreat sought by just a dozen lovers of Nature life, and from the reports no jollier time could be imagined than was had by the congenial company who were conveyed to the scene of rural festivities in the big bus from the Woodleaf Stables (Boyes' Springs) of Ray Button, that gentleman skillfully handling the ribbons over a spanking team. A genuine camp-life lunch was enjoyed, with chops broiled over an open fire, and other appetizing accessories. The merry twelve were: Misses Anita Gasner, Henrietta Weber, Johanna, Eva and Carmelita Dresel; Messrs. Ray Button, Charles Lane, Julius and Otto Dresel, and Walter Brauns and Walter Faust of San Francisco.

The annual meeting of the Congregational Ladies' Aid Society will be held at the home of Mrs. W. H. Hanger, Tuesday afternoon, May 11th. All members are urged to be present.

BENEFIT FOR THE AGUA CALIENTE DISTRICT SCHOOL

Tonight (Saturday), May 8th, at Boyes' Theatre, takes place the Entertainment and Dance for the Agua Caliente School.

As we have told our readers in previous issues, tonight's event has been arranged with the laudable object in view of raising funds that the school may be kept open the full-length term.

The Misses Hattie Young, Annie Farrell and Anita Hughes have been successful in securing entertaining talent for the program to be rendered, and good music for dancing.

A good time is promised all who attend, and we urge the residents of town and valley—who are ever generously responsive when a commendatory undertaking seeks support—to go out to the popular big resort and make this benefit a success.

All roads should lead to Boyes' Theatre tonight.

BIG GAME AT BOYES' SPRINGS

Tomorrow afternoon, the J. H. Kruse team of San Francisco will cross bats with the Boyes' Springs Ball Club.

A fast and interesting game is anticipated as these two teams met three weeks ago on the same diamond and played a 1 to 1 tie. The game was called at the end of the ninth inning to permit the visitors to get the train.

Rudy Marks, the manager and captain of the Boyes' team, has a few new players signed that will greatly strengthen his line-up.

The Boyes' Club has played several games this season, and, unfortunately, has been on the short end of close games, consequently the team has had several changes in the line-up that will be beneficial both on the offense and defense.

TO ADDRESS CLASS

The Baccalaureate Sermon will be preached by Rev. J. Henry Oehlhoff, the rector, at Trinity Episcopal Church, Sunday night, May 30th. This distinction was conferred on Rev. Oehlhoff last year, it will be remembered, and the simplicity of language and fine thoughts expressed to the graduates of the Sonoma Valley Union High School were so greatly appreciated on that occasion, that the majority of the Class of 1915 expressed their wish and pleasure to have the sermon delivered by Rev. Oehlhoff this year. The Commencement Exercises of the High School are to be held June 4th.

Some "Twenty Years Ago" In Old Sonoma

(FROM THE SONOMA INDEX-TRIBUNE OF MAY 11, 1895.)

G. H. Hotz was one of Sonoma's business visitors at the metropolis Tuesday.

Hay making has commenced and the clatter of mowing machines can be heard on all sides.

Henry Gundlach came up from San Francisco last week to spend a few days on Rhine Farm.

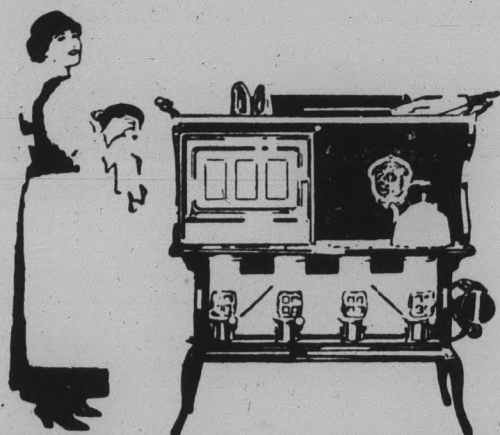

The Congregational Church at Glen Ellen is rapidly nearing completion, and will be ready for occupancy about the 1st of June.

A large number of Sonoma people took in the Rose Carnival at Santa Rosa, this week, on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. The town was so crowded with visitors that comfort and pleasure were at a premium. In other words the carnival was too big for the town. An Index-Tribune reporter went to the ball last night to see Governor Budd lead the grand march with the Floral Queen, and if possible to secure a stag dance with Jim.

Chas. Dal Poggetto, the well-known barber, who has been seriously ill the past few weeks, was taken to St. Mary's Hospital, San Francisco, Thursday afternoon, for medical treatment.

The following officers of Sonoma Grove, No. 75, U. A. O. D., were installed by District Deputy Bulotti on Friday evening to serve for the ensuing term: E. Eraldi, P. A.; S. Ciucci, N. A.; T. Oliveri, V. A.; D. Valente, Treasurer; A. G. Bulotti, Recording Secretary; Pedroia, Financial Secretary; G. Zappa, Conductor; P. Roveda, A. G.; P. Marenzi, O. G.

J. Chauvet, the well-known and successful wine-grower of Glen Ellen, has purchased the Kohler & Frohling vineyard and farm comprising six hundred acres. Added to his other land interests this latest purchase makes Mr. Chauvet one of the largest real estate owners in Sonoma Valley. He will take possession of the property June 1st.

ENJOYABLE EVENTS IN SONOMA VALLEY

The May Dance, under the auspices of the Sonoma Drum Corps, at Chauvet Hall, Glen Ellen, Saturday night, was very largely attended, and a success in every particular—to the satisfaction of Committee-men Jas. Modini and Leonard Thomas. Milton Sobbe, as floor manager, looked well after the pleasure of everybody, and the music by the Paul-Hansen Orchestra was par excellence.

Union Hall never looked prettier for any function than the May Day Dance, given by the girls of St. Margaret's Guild, and the bevy of charming girls—who were assisted by Mesdames G. H. Hotz, Wm. Von Hacht and J. A. Kinsella—used to artistic advantage streamers of vari-colored crepe paper and a profusion of spring blossoms and greenery. The party was a delightful affair, dancing being very enjoyable under the floor management of the Misses Gladys Simmons and Agnes Moss.

Miss Ruth Maxwell was the charming hostess to a few of her lady friends at the delightful suburban Maxwell home, on Saturday a fortnight ago. The afternoon was enjoyably passed in social converse, much of the time being spent in the beautiful grounds. A delicious lunch was served at the most daintily appointed of tables. Miss Maxwell, whose personality is gracious and winsome, is an ideal entertainer. Her guests included: Mesdames Maxwell, Cowgill, Cutter, Manuel, Goethe, Groskopf, Granice and Miss Cook.

The Misses Gladys and Bernice Chance entertained the members of the "Ruby Seal Society," at their home in El Verano, last Saturday night. Cards and games were enjoyed, and the members of the club—led by Mrs. J. Steckmeyer—sang a number of popular and old-time melodies, which proved a pleasing feature of the evening's entertainment. At midnight a delectable repast was served. Those present were: Misses Gladys and Bernice Chance, Eva Mannich, Rose Bosch, Rose Semel, Louise and Angeline Forni, Freda Tillman and Edna Ammann. The invited guests of the club were: Mesdames Chance, Steckmeyer, Norrbom, Semel, Bosch and Miss Bertha Semel; Messrs. Chance, Henry Norrbom, Roy Chance, A. Mannich and E. Bosch. This was the last meeting of the Ruby Seal Society until September, when the good times will be resumed.

Friday afternoon of last week, a number of the friends, pupils and Sunday School class of Miss Alta Rice gave an entertaining musicale in her studio. In the rendition of the program much proficiency was displayed, the piano work of the children being especially praiseworthy. The program was as follows:

Boat Song.....Emily Batto
Song, "The Telephone," Beth Lane
Instrumental Duet, Emmet Gottenberg and Mr. Rodhe
Piano Solos, (a) Mazurka, (b) Polka.....Mildred Erickson
Piano Solo, "Do, Re, Mi Waltz," Cecil Hunter
Duets, "Love Song from Faust," and "Spanish Dance," Misses Trautvetter and Rice
Violin Solo.....Mr. Rodhe
Piano Solos, (a) Vacation March, (b) May Song.....Sylvia Picotti
Vocal Solo.....Arzola Allemen
Piano Solo....."The Brooklet," Beth Lane
Cornet Solo.....Emmet Gottenberg
Piano Solo, "The Little Trombone," Flora Trautvetter
Piano Solo, "A Dream Song," Norma Jansen
Violin Solo....."Humoresque," Mr. Rodhe
Piano Solo, "Shepherds All and Maidens Fair," Miss Rice
Piano Duet, "Hungary" Rapsodie Mignone.....Misses Trautvetter and Rice

FINE BARBER SHOP

Sonoma's enterprising tonsorial artists, Messrs. M. Mangiante and H. Franceschi, have decided upon a progressive step in their line of business. These gentlemen have formed a co-partnership and taken a lease of the McElroy Building, on Napa Street, which is now being remodelled by Alfred Warrier, and converted into a first-class barber shop. Baths are to be installed, and also appliances for electrical massaging. As both gentlemen are fine barbers and very well liked, their combined energies in the more central and up-to-date quarters will surely result in increased patronage. We hope and bespeak success for these worthy young men in their venture.

DEATH SUMMONS ANTHONY GRAHAM

Anthony D. Graham entered into rest at his home near Boyes Springs, Monday morning, death coming swiftly and suddenly, and resulting from an organic affection of the heart, from which Mr. Graham had suffered for the past three years. With the passing from lip to lip that the grim reaper had entered the happy, harmonious Graham home and summoned the beloved husband and father, regret was widespread throughout the valley in which, for nearly a quarter of a century, the deceased had lived, honored and respected as a citizen, trusted and esteemed as a friend.

Anthony D. Graham was born in New York City in 1861, and came to California when a child, locating with his father at Fort Winfield Scott. After completing his education, which he received in the schools of San Francisco, he moved with his family to Tulare County, assuming charge of a large sheep ranch for his father. From Tulare, the young man moved to Sonoma County, accepting the foremanship of the Cotati Ranch. This position being held by Mr. Graham for a period of ten years, and to him was paid the rare compliment by Arthur Page, the owner of the Cotati Ranch of being the most competent overseer to ever manage the place.

Prior to locating in the Sonoma Valley, Mr. Graham spent two years in Petaluma. For twelve years, the gentleman served as roadmaster of the Agua Caliente district, under Supervisor Blair Hart. Twenty years of his life were passed in El Verano, where he built a pretty home known as Vine Cottage.

In 1901, Mr. Graham was united in marriage with Miss Mary Cooper, a graduate of St. Bridget's Academy of San Francisco, and a young woman of much refinement. In 1910, the deceased purchased and established the Graham Cash Store and Post Office at Boyes Springs, and in 1914, he purchased the beautiful home of Captain Boyes, and there with his wife and three small children—Teresa M., John D. and Robert E.—he happily spent the last days of his life. Mr. Graham was never known to speak an unkind word to or of any one, and his last words were thanks to his wife for her patience and loving care all through his illness. A sad feature was the message immediately after the death of Mr. Graham, that his eldest sister, Mrs. Edward Tobin, was hovering on the brink of the valley of shadows. Another sister, Miss Mary Graham, and a beloved foster daughter, Mrs. Hilary Bradley of Tiburon, survive to mourn the departure from earth of their much-loved relative.

The funeral was held from the St. Francis Catholic Church on Wednesday morning, a Requiem Mass being celebrated by the Rev. Fathers Ryan (who officiated at the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Graham), O'Malley and Comerford, former and present pastors of St. Francis' Church. The pall-bearers were: L. H. Green, Blair Hart, George Breitenbach, F. W. Boynton, Emmet Mullen, and W. J. Kearney. All that was mortal of Anthony Graham was consigned to rest in Mountain Cemetery, beneath a pall of the choicest of floral offerings—testimonials of affection and friendship.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to return our heartfelt thanks to the many friends whose tender sympathy was expressed to us in our deep bereavement; to the gentlemen who acted as pall bearers; to the choir, and for the beautiful flowers sent to express friendship and to honor the memory of our beloved one.

MRS. A. D. GRAHAM AND FAMILY.

Mothers' Day will be observed at the Methodist Church, Sunday morning. There will be special music by the choir, and an appropriate sermon by the pastor, Rev. Edwin F. Brown. In the evening the Union Service will be held. Rev. T. M. Price will preach.

MONTHLY MEETING OF CITY TRUSTEES

The City Trustees met in regular session at the City Hall, Monday night, at which the principal point of interest and subject under discussion was street improvements. C. B. Munson, of the Municipal Improvement Company of San Francisco, appeared before the Board, submitting a plan for the laying of an asphaltic concrete pavement, with concrete base. The cost of laying this pavement, four and one-half inches thick, will be fifteen cents per square foot, with an additional estimated cost of three cents for excavating, thus making the total cost eighteen cents per square foot, or three dollars per front foot. While the company which Mr. Munson represents certainly offers a splendid proposition, than which, undoubtedly, a better one will never be afforded property-owners, yet a few believe that property valuations do not justify the outlay, and that a less expensive macadam would serve the purpose. If Mr. Munson can secure agreements from the majority of the property-owners around the square to accept his proposition, the Board will try to find ways and means to do the city's half of the work. The Trustees, however, while unanimously anxious to make this necessary improvement, will not force the proposition against the will of the majority of those who have to foot the bills. The matter was laid over until Wednesday night of next week, when the Board will meet to consider specifications for street work.

NOTES BY CORRESPONDENTS

AGUA CALIENTE

Reported by Archibald McKiver

Mr. and Mrs. E. Steiger spent Sunday here, the guests of relatives.

L. Monyer, Sr., a well-known El Veranoite, was here Monday, transacting business.

Tom Mullen, of this burg, took in the Fair in Frisco Sunday. He reports the Exposition good.

Barney Cohen, a rising young business man of this place, was on a business trip to Lakeville, Monday.

Deputy Sheriff Jack Murray was about Saturday evening. Jack carries his new position with class and dignity.

Emile Valente, rising young society chap of Sonoma, attended the dance and movies at Fetters', Saturday evening.

Leon Monyer, El Verano's drayman, was here the latter part of the week, hauling a carload of furniture and flowers to the Caliente Villa.

Miss Marie Worhl, of the Agua Caliente Villa, visited with relatives and friends in the Exposition City the latter part of last week.

Pete Perazzo, the Sonoma blacksmith, took in the "movies" at Fetters' Sunday night, and also enjoyed a few dances. Some class to Pete.

"Easy Jim," Vineburg's clever and original Index reporter, was here, Monday, visiting his brother correspondent, "McKiver." Call again, "Easy."

A crew of gardeners are busy these days beautifying the grounds around Fetters' Springs, one of the finest and best managed summer resorts in the State.

Mayor Jake Steckmeyer, of El Verano, was here, Sunday evening, conversing with Mayor Tim Hollihan, of this burg, in regard to some official business.

Nathan Cantor, "popular proprietor" of Cantor's Villa, Verano, and his wife, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Strum at the new Caliente Villa, Sunday evening.

A carload of plants and flowers arrived on the Northwestern Pacific Railroad, consigned to the Caliente Villa. These will be set out to beautify the grounds around the resort.

The new cottage which is in course of construction for Ed Benson, popular manager of Agua Caliente, is nearly completed. It is one of the classiest bungalows being constructed here.

Tom Morris, "our pheasant king," transacted business in the Bay City, one day last week. Mr. Morris has a large stock of pheasants, for which he has many orders for shipment throughout the State.

An automobile party motored to this place, Sunday, from the metropolis, and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Strum. The party comprised Mr. and Mrs. Rottenberg and friends of Oakland.

The pupils of our local grammar school enjoyed a picnic and outing at Graham's Canyon on May Day. All report a good time. Tom Farrell was at the wheel of the jitney 'bus which carried the children to the canyon.

Morris Levy, popular proprietor of the Mervyn Hotel, Glen Ellen, accompanied by an automobile party, was here one day last week shaking hands and renewing old acquaintances. All were glad to see Morris.

Mrs. J. Farrell is making many improvements around her summer resort, and expects a large crowd of summer guests this season. The date of the initial ball, which promises to excel all others, will be announced later.

Jack Sullivan, wholesale metropolitan grocer, accompanied by Tom Corcoran, a politician, spent the week-end at their summer cottage here. These gentlemen are popular throughout the valley here, and their many friends were glad to see them.

The ball game at Boyes' Springs, Sunday, between the local team and Santa Rosa was largely attended, and a howling bunch of rooters was there for both sides. At the end of the ninth inning, the score board thus spoke: Santa Rosa, 8; Boyes' Springs, 0. The home boys took the defeat good naturedly.

In next week's issue, the writer will be able to announce the date of the grand opening ball at Fetters' Hot Springs. All are anxious, remembering the 1914 dance, and no doubt a much larger turn-out be there this year, as already your correspondent is besieged with inquiries as to the particular date of the 1915 opening of the attractive and well-known health resort.

SAL'S PICK-UPS

Gathered in and Around El Verano

[SPECIAL BY LEASED WIRE, THE SHORTEST IN THE WORLD.]

Charley Taber, the well-known relief passenger conductor of the Southern Pacific, has been transferred to the Sacramento division.

Mrs. Bartlett came up from the Bay City the fore part of the week and will remain with her husband, the popular barber at the Bellevue Hotel.

Miss Lillie Myers, of San Francisco, has been visiting at the Block home during the past week, as the guest of Misses Eva and Ruby Block.

Mrs. M. F. Mullen returned home, Sunday, after an absence of seven weeks, visiting relatives and friends and enjoying the sights of the Exposition City.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Vanucchi were visiting his mother, Mrs. R. Vanucchi, of Paul's resort, Sunday. Paul is now the proprietor of the Forum Cafe in the Bay City.

Roy Chance was up last Saturday and Sunday from Vallejo, to visit relatives in El Verano. Mr. Chance has recently accepted a position at the Mare Island Navy Yard.

Mrs. J. H. Weise, of Glen Ellen, school teacher of that district, were home-bound passengers on the Sunday evening train, after enjoying a pleasant visit with friends in Napa City.

The many friends of A. D. Graham were greatly saddened when they heard that he had crossed the Great Divide, and they deeply deplore the passing of this kind and good man.

George Fernold of San Francisco arrived at the Bellevue Hotel, the latter part of the week, and expects to spend an extended vacation, if not the entire summer. Mr. Fernold is well known here and is always a welcome visitor.

W. G. Southerland and wife, of the metropolis, are registered at the Bellevue Hotel. Mr. Southerland holds a responsible position with the J. H. Keefe Painting and Decorating Company. The gentleman is well-known here, having spent several vacations at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Gale and son George were passengers on the Sunday afternoon Southern Pacific train en route to Heyburn, Idaho, where Mr. Gale has property interests. The gentleman is the popular agent of the Southern Pacific at El Verano, and with his family will be absent for a month. C. S. Wood, a relief agent of the Southern Pacific is taking Mr. Gale's position.

Miss May Andrews, one of our most popular society girls, departed last Friday afternoon, for a month's vacation with friends at Richmond. Miss Andrews will also visit with friends in Berkeley, Oakland and San Francisco, but her time will be principally spent at Richmond, with Miss Mary Solieb. Several of Miss Andrews' friends accompanied her to the depot, wishing her a very pleasant vacation trip.

The following are the line-ups of the El Verano base ball teams, which are to cross bats on the Bellevue Hotel diamond, Sunday, May 9th, at 2 p. m. sharp: El Verano Pool Sharks—John Basile, manager and 2nd b.; Prof. Atkinson, 1st b.; Walter Poulson, 3d b.; Carl Weaver, p.; Byron Weaver, c.; Dutch Vincent, R. F.; Lloyd Stillings, 1 f.; The El Verano Lumber Jacks—L. P. Kearney, manager and c. f.; George Weaver, P. R. Bartlett, c.; Albert Rossi, 1st b.; Ralph Stillings, 2nd b.; Ken Weaver, s. s.; Alden Child, 3rd b.; Albert Dutil, 1 f.; Wm. Bomhoff, r. f. This will be an A1 game of ball and well worth the price of admission—which will be free.

SAL SALARATUS.

Our people were grieved to hear of the death of former Postmaster A. D. Graham, of Boyes' Springs. The funeral was largely attended, Wednesday, by friends throughout the valley, who followed the remains to their last resting-place. Mr. Graham resided here for the past thirty years.

Harry Balnes and Larry Larson, of El Verano, passed through here, Sunday, after a hike to Hooker's Falls. The boys were footsore and weary after their long walk, and report seeing several rattlesnakes on the journey. They both sported willow sticks for canes, and were looking for a jitney 'bus to carry them to "home, sweet home."

ARCHIE MCKIVER.

VINEBURG

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Johansen and son Clyde, of Sonoma, were looking after real estate interests in this part of the valley, Wednesday last.

On Friday, April 30th, the first cherries of the season were shipped to the metropolis from Vineburg, by John Coops, whose fine orchard is on the Napa road.

Our orchards and vineyards are now being put in a first-class state of cultivation, and if old Jack Frost doesn't "butt in," everything points favorably for a fine fruit crop.

Frederick Batto and Robert Bird, two bright young students of the Huichica school, accompanied by Robert Harrison of Sonoma, were week-end visitors to the Exposition City, and just believe they had a pleasant time.

On last Thursday morning, there arrived at Batto's Spur a straight carload of poultry charcoal from Cadillac, Michigan, containing 500 sacks—the largest consignment to ever arrive at one time in this valley, direct from the producer to the consumer.

Two of our leading citizens, A. W. Lehrke and Walter Bundschu, enjoyed a fishing excursion to the Fowler and Rexford Creeks, the first of the week. As both gentlemen are expert in this line of sport, they soon landed between fifty and sixty of the speckled beauties.

It was with pleasure and admiration I read the Agua Caliente news items, from the versatile pen of "Archibald McKiver," who was always one of the Index-Tribune's brightest correspondents. We hope he will continue to write for Sonoma Valley's leading journal.

Messrs. Waldron and Saylor, the efficient section foremen of Sonoma and Schellville, and their crews are now busily at work cutting grass and keeping the road-bed in this vicinity in some kind of shape. Owing to the lack of ballast, sound ties, etc., it takes railroad men who understand their business to get results.

The banner carload of Sonoma Valley canned fruit left Batto's spur on Monday last. The car contained one thousand cases, or about thirty tons, packed by the Sonoma Valley Canning Company at Buena Vista. Whoever says that this valley cannot support a fruit-canning plant, has "rooms to let in their upper flat."

Albert Groskopf, Jr., delivery manager of John Batto & Sons, Manager Howard Brown of New Vineburg Inn, and Bill Helberg, the jolly minstrel man, of Schellville, represented this part of the valley at the Native Sons' Drum Corps' Ball, at Glen Ellen, last Saturday night, and all report a "daisy time." Daisies are all right!

Sunday last, at the residence of John Batto, the birthday anniversary of Arthur Batto of Vineburg, and August Figone of the metropolis, where he is the proprietor of the celebrated Vineburg Wine Vaults—were jointly celebrated. An elaborate dinner was partaken of and a pleasant time passed. Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. August Figone and family, Sol Tartaul, manager of the Union Ice Company, and James Testina. Mr. Tartaul was much pleased with his first trip to this valley.

EASY JIM.

SHELLVILLE

Howard Knight was among the county seat visitors on last Friday. Jack Millerick left on a business trip to Los Angeles last Saturday.

Wm. Jacobson spent Sunday at his cottage on the old Marti ranch. Conrad Keiser made a business trip to the Fair City, on Thursday last.

Joseph Keiser has been doing jury duty at the county seat this week.

Joe Miller, of Napa, spent the week-end with his mother, who resides here.

Frank Rose has been in different sections of Mendocino County the past week.

Mrs. E. E. Bennett was in Petaluma, Friday last, combining business with pleasure.

Miss Kate Wilber, our school teacher, was the week-end guest of friends in the City of Roses.

Mrs. J. A. Landsborough, of Locust Grove, spent a few days of this week at the Bigelow residence.

Miss Agatha Bergi, of the Bay City, arrived here, Friday last, to be the guest of Miss Agnes Keiser a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Helberg and children were among the many motorists enjoying a trip in and around the valley, Sunday last.

Erhard Steiger was in the Bay City, Wednesday, and while there visited his father and mother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Leahy.

Joe Keechler and family, with Joe Junior at the wheel, spent last Saturday in Petaluma, guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. Hallenbarter.

The happiness of the Jack Gilfoyle home was greatly increased, Monday last, May 3d, by the arrival of a dainty native son and a sturdy native son. Mother and babe are doing nicely. Congratulations.

Mrs. Grover Rubke was hostess to the Jolly Twelve Social Club, Wednesday evening, and all had a "jolly" time. This popular young matron, who is a most tactful hostess, recently entertained the Schellville Whist Club.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church met at the Mont Aker's home, Thursday, with Mrs. Ashback as hostess. Mrs. Frank McGill assisted in entertaining and helped to make the afternoon enjoyable for the many members and friends who gathered in the hospitable home.

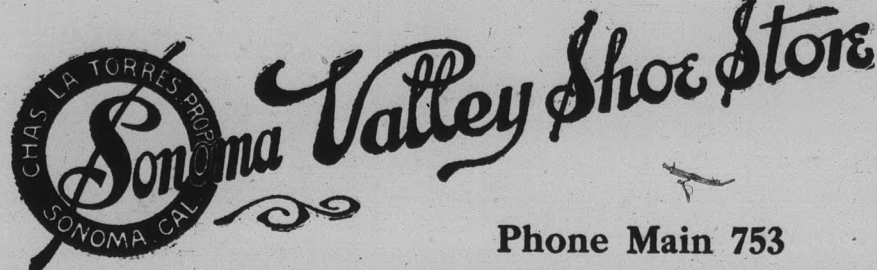

A pleasant time was had at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Saylor, Friday night of last week, when a number of friends tendered their daughter, Miss Fern, a genuine surprise to assist in the celebration of her birthday anniversary. The girlish recipient of the honor was made very happy when, on returning from spending the afternoon with a friend, she found her home tastefully adorned with flowers and friends and schoolmates assembled therein. Games were played, and prizes awarded to the winners, and there was the usual birthday supper, with May baskets filled with flowers as favors for the guests. Miss Fern received many pretty gifts. Those present were: Misses Ma Richardson, Lillian Johnson, Arline Miller, Elizabeth Helberg, Rena McDaniels, Messrs. Edwin Johnson, Gus Larson, Will Brevier, Orison Hunt, Edward and Henry Palmer.
